Attendees: Barbara Andino, Amelia DiGennaro, Damian Figueroa-Gonzalez, Moath Hussein

Start time: 10:30 PM

End time: 10:45 PM

Sprint 5, Day 7

Barbara Andino:

- How many hours have I worked since the last meeting?
 - 3 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - I finalized the legend and added shrog callouts to highlight key detection and response steps within the diagram. I cleaned up some of the visuals to create a sequence of actions and mitigation points easier to follow for the presentation.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - I plan to review the close-to-final version with my team again. I plan to get their feedback and opinions on the flow.
- What are the hurdles?
 - None at the moment.

Amelia DiGennaro:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 3 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Since the last meeting I began drafting detailed simulation scenarios and acceptance criteria for the drop attack. I also began mapping out the key test cases and identifying the required tools to validate each stage.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - I plan to finalize the simulation scenarios and present them to my team for their feedback. I will also begin to outline the testing schedule and define the success metrics for each stage of the simulation.
- What are the hurdles?
 - None at the moment.

Damian Figueroa-Gonzalez:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 3 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Since the last scrum meeting, I finalized the main round of testing for the harmless USB payload prototype. I verified that the payload performs safely under different test conditions and documented the key results for team review.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?

- I plan to share the documented results with the team, gather feedback, and identify any areas that may need minor adjustments or enhancements.
- What are the hurdles?
 - None at this moment.

Moath Hussein:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 3 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - The user feedback from the initial demo was analyzed to pinpoint usability problems and areas that require visual or functional enhancements.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - We plan to enhance the demonstration interface and optimize performance metrics to ensure a smoother and more polished final presentation.
- What are the hurdles?
 - None for today
