Mateo Escobar

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - I have worked three hours and thirty minutes
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Since the last scrum meeting I have worked on the security rules on Defender to purposely make our honeypot vulnerable.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - Until the next scrum meeting I will be performing requests against our virtual machine and see if it can be accessed externally.
- What are the hurdles?
 - No hurdles at the moment.

Nikohl Fuentes:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - I've worked three hours and thirty minutes since the last meeting.
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - After testing that the VM was properly configured on a peer's computer, I reinstalled the Remote Windows Desktop application on my MacOS device to be able to connect into the VM on my own and see that the configurations run properly.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - I got the remote desktop to run my VM without issue, and again, we need to determine whether we would use this as the host or the target, and come up with another VM instance to act as the counterpart.
- What are the hurdles?
 - No hurdles encountered today.

Sebastian Medina:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 2
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Pinged to the IP address given to the virtual machine successfully.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - Continue to tinker with engaging with the virtual machine to figure out how to collect network data traffic.
- What are the hurdles?
 - Time is often a common hurdle.

Marian Mora:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - I worked two hours.
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - I continued expanding documentation, specifically outlining the process of VM configuration and honeypot setup.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - I will continue expanding documentation and work with my peer to review our progress on VM setup and security rules to ensure consistency across our Azure environment.
- What are the hurdles?
 - Same hurdle remains.

Ryan Hamel:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - One hour
