

Sprint Review Meeting Minutes:

Project: USB Drop Attack

Attendees: Roberto Martinez, Lauren De Leon, Mohammed Alabdajabbar, Nicholas Marini, Jonathan Ruiz

Start time: 3:30 PM

End time: 4:30 PM

After a show and tell presentation, the implementation of the following user stories were accepted by the product owners:

- User Story: 5 As a report reviewer, I want to read a capstone project so that I can understand how it has an impact on the USB drop simulation
- User Story: 5 As a technical evaluator, I want to use Digispark to see how the simulation works. I want to know how a real USB attack occur.
- User Story: 5 As a cybersecurity team member, I want to check which method we will use for delivery that we will use for the simulation. This is so that we begin the actual demo next sprint.
- User Story: 5 As a researcher, I want to research about usb drop case studies. This is so that we include it in the final deliverable.
- User Story: 5 As a team member, I want to outline a structure and share a document with the team. This is so that the report get more easy for all of us.

The following ones were rejected and moved back to the product backlog to be assigned to a future sprint at a future Spring Planning meeting.

- All of the tasks didn't need to be moved to a future sprint
 - How this should be reflected on the user task definition in Mingle:
