What went wrong?

- A few team members had trouble syncing due to overlapping responsibilities outside of class.
- It was a busy time for everyone on the team and we weren't able to meet at consistent times throughout the sprint.
- It was difficult to coalesce work

Did we do a good job estimating our team's velocity?

Yes, the sprint's estimated number of story points was ambitious but mostly accurate. The pace matched our current workflow well.

Did we do a good job estimating the points (time required) for each user story?

Some stories were a bit more complex than expected, but overall, accurate.

Did each team member work as scheduled?

Yes, all members contributed to their assigned stories

What went right?

- We were able to get all of our presentation documentation together
- We're very close to completing the final deliverable

How to address the issues in the next sprint?

- N/A

How to improve the product?

- We have a future features section of our presentation.
