Alex Castaneira:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
    - I have worked 3 hours since the last meeting, the second meeting of the sprint.
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
    - Since our last meeting I have done cgal installation successfully, by following youtube videos then reviewed C++ syntax and fundamentals.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
    - It is planned to wait until confirmation from Masoud of the capstone group reaches Mr. Hernandez for the first meeting regarding stack to occur and until to review the theoretical aspect of geometric algorithms already done.
- What are the hurdles?
    - The hurdles are the lack of being able to find good videos on C++ cgal projects to familiarize with the library and C++ aspects on geometry algorithms.

Anthony Thompson:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
    - 3 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
    - Continued study of C++ and CGAL
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
    - Installation of CGAL library and review of Computational Geometry Concepts
- What are the hurdles?
    - Installation of CGAL

Jinpan Zheng:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
    - 3 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
    - Review the C++ programming language related concepts and take a quick view on cgal library.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
    - Install cgal library, read cgal library documentation and get familiar with it.
- What are the hurdles?
    - The development environment configuration is relatively complicated to set up.

Alex Narvaez:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
    - 3 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
    - Look over the C++ programming language and the CGAL library.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
    - Begun the process of setting up cgal library installation.
- What are the hurdles?
    - Figuring out how to properly install the development environment.
