

Daily Scrum Meeting Minutes:

Attendees: Jacob Schuster, Owen Weng, William Duran

Start time: 10:00 PM

End time: 11:00 PM

Jacob Schuster:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - About 2 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Collaborated on a project proposal, which we presented to the product owner today.
 - Continued research into graph databases, began building a prototype in neo4j using simulated information from Excel files.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - In the next meeting, I'll incorporate feedback from our meeting with the product owner to improve the design of the system, and work with the team on an implementation plan
- What are the hurdles?
 - Right now the only hurdles are with scheduling. We're all full-time students so it can be difficult to find days when we're all free. I expect this to lessen as we progress through the semester and everyone's schedules become more regular

Owen Weng:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 3 hour
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Meet with project owner and present the proposal.
 - Use neo4j to organize the relationship
 - Research the front end tool and setup
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - We will begin researching the details of using AI in our projects and how to extract data from one database to other
 - Work on graphing database
- What are the hurdles?
 - One thing is making time to meet with our group members and product owner, we are still working to find common free time to meet and discuss about our project.

William Duran:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 3 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Started developing the graph database according to the project needs
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?

- Keep developing the graph database
- What are the hurdles?
 - Setting meetings so that everyone can attend in person.
