What went wrong?

- Did we do a good job estimating our team's velocity?
 - Our two tasks were completed by everyone assigned to them so our velocity was measured correctly.
- Did we do a good job estimating the points (time required) for each user story?
 - No, the points assigned to the user stories were underestimated for this sprint.
- Did each team member work as scheduled?
 - Yes, team members worked to complete their issues and keep working on assigned user stories for this sprint. Yes they worked as scheduled, but nonetheless the task needed more time to overcome bugs and syntax errors.

How to address the issues in the next sprint?

- How to improve the process?
 - Communicate more for better meeting times and be more efficient with meetings.
 - Continue to discuss scrum methods
 - Actually complete the assigned tasks that were promised to be completed

- How to improve the product?
 - Team members are continually adding new issues to the project GitHub to make sure there are always tasks to work on and assign for each sprint. This also ensures the product is continually updated and improving.
 - Team members are focusing on the User Interface to ensure basic features functions are intuitive to users
 - Following through on commitments.
 - Break down tasks into more details and feasible goals.

The product owner chose the following user stories to be done during the next sprint. They are ordered based on their priority.

- As a developer, I want to fix login page loading bugs of the app, so the users are able to login smoothly.
- As a developer, I want to fix sign up page loading bugs of the app, so the users are able to create an account

- As a user, I want to have a loading screen between transitions.
- As a user, I want to have a home page ui
- As a user, I want to be able to edit my profile picture and bio
- As a user, I want to be able to change my settings

Sprint Retrospective Meeting Minutes:

Attendees: Rebeca Gonzalez, Sebastian Aviles, Arquimides Cala, Justin Venegas, Rogelio Lopez

Start time: 7:30 pm

End time: 7:45 pm

What went wrong?

- Did we do a good job estimating our team's velocity?
 - Some of the tasks were not completed so our velocity was not measured correctly.
- Did we do a good job estimating the points (time required) for each user story?
 - No, the points assigned to the user stories were underestimated for this sprint.
- Did each team member work as scheduled?
 - Yes, team members worked to complete their issues and keep working on assigned user stories for this sprint. Yes they worked as scheduled, but nonetheless the task needed more time to overcome bugs and syntax errors.

How to address the issues in the next sprint?

- How to improve the process?
 - Communicate more for better meeting times and be more efficient with meetings.
 - Continue to discuss scrum methods
 - Actually complete the assigned tasks that were promised to be completed
- How to improve the product?
 - Team members are continually adding new issues to the project GitHub to make sure there are always tasks to work on and assign for each sprint. This also ensures the product is continually updated and improving.
 - Team members are focusing on the User Interface to ensure basic features functions are intuitive to users
 - Following through on commitments.
 - Break down tasks into more details and feasible goals.

Sprint Review Meeting Minutes:

Attendees: Rebeca Gonzalez, Sebastian Aviles, Arquimides Cala, Justin Venegas, Rogelio Lopez

- 3- As a user, I want to have a loading screen between transitions.

The following ones were rejected and moved back to the product backlog to be assigned to a future sprint at a future Sprint Planning meeting.

 - Some of the tasks were not completed so our velocity was not measured correctly.

 - No, the points assigned to the user stories were underestimated for this sprint.
- Did each team member work as scheduled?
 - Yes, team members worked to complete their issues and keep working on assigned user stories for this sprint. Yes they worked as scheduled, but nonetheless the task needed more time to overcome bugs and syntax errors.

How to address the issues in the next sprint?

- How to improve the process?
 - Communicate more for better meeting times and be more efficient with meetings.
 - Continue to discuss scrum methods
 - Actually complete the assigned tasks that were promised to be completed
- How to improve the product?

 - Team members are focusing on the User Interface to ensure basic features functions are intuitive to users
 - Following through on commitments.
 - Break down tasks into more details and feasible goals.
