Summary:

On Thursday 7/13/18 at approximately 1030 hours, the above subject who worked dayshift was terminated immediately from her employment at 24 hours McDonalds by the general manager. At which time, Thurman went on anger rampage and began to destroy store owned property while they were customers present in the restaurant. Thurman exited the restaurant and left the area in a BWM with a paper tag, last seen heading northbound on South Dixie highway.

Dayshift assistant manager is concerned for her safety since she arrives early (400 AM, Monday-Friday) and Thurman made verbal threats against her. McDonalds Corporate has not provided security video footage or indicates seeking prosecution.

McDonalds General Manager was arrested for a bench warrant which was unrelated to the above case.
