

Effective immediately on all domestics and baker acts. Officers need to ask and document in their report if any involved parties own, possess, or have access to any weapons. It does not matter if you responded to a residence, a business, a vehicle, or someplace on the street.